Graduate School Opportunities

The University of Northern Iowa is looking for outstanding applicants for its interdisciplinary graduate program, the Masters in Public Policy.
The MPP is designed to be completed in two years. Core courses provide students with background in politics and economics of policy-making. There are a number of graduate assistantships available on a competitive basis to the most qualified applicants. The application deadline for the awards is February 15th. Applications for admission are considered at any time.

Saint Mary's University of Minnesota

Remmick Fellowship Program is intended for college graduates who do not have a degree in education but wish to pursue a teaching career, specifically in Catholic Schools. While enrolled in the Masters of Arts in Instruction, the fellowship will cover full tuition and room and board. The Remmick fellowship group is looking for individuals who will work in the NativityMiguel Network of Schools during the two years after completion of the program. The NativityMiguel Network administers to low-income families and impoverished communities. For more information visit the CCS office.
