

HENRY WINKLER KICKS OFF AQUINAS COLLEGE'S "STARS FOR SCHOLARS"

Henry Winkler, the well-known actor, director, producer and advocate for children, will be the first speaker in a new series of programs called "Stars for Scholars." The series is designed to bring top-name talent to the area and raise funds for Aquinas scholarships. Each year the College awards approximately 10 million dollars of scholarship money to deserving students. Winkler was chosen to appear because he is a tireless advocate for children, especially those with learning disabilities. He is the co-author of the "Hank Zipzer" children's series of books, which is based on his life as an imaginative child with dyslexia and other difficulties.

Winkler will speak at a ticketed event which is free to the public at the Aquinas College Performing Arts Center, 1705 Robinson Road SE at 2:00 p.m., Monday, March 10. Free tickets will be distributed at the Theatre Box Office beginning at 1:00 p.m. and are on a first come-first served basis and seating is limited. The doors to the theatre will open at 1:30 p.m.
