Student Office Assistant – International Programs, AB 20 – Contact Joelle Baldwin, 632-2076 or baldwjoe@aquinas.edu

The Office of International Programs is looking for an office assistant to join the team starting in the Spring 2006 semester. Responsibilities include: general office help, assisting with student orientation sessions, presentations for prospective and current students, answering general questions about study abroad programs, and other various tasks as assigned. Applicant should have previous experience with Microsoft Office and may be asked to work some evenings or weekends. A previous study abroad participant is preferred. Hours are flexible; 10-15 hours per week.

All applicants must complete the Student Employment Packet. Also, applicants should email Joelle at baldwjoe@aquinas.edu with a letter of interest including the following:

1. Explanation of why the applicant would like a position in the International Programs Office
2. Explanation of past experiences and skills the applicant would bring to the position. (ie. computer, language, presentation)
3. Availability for interview during December (dates and times)

Attention All Students and Faculty

FALL TERM textbooks are now being removed from the AQ Bookstore shelves to reorganize for next semester. If you still need a book for this term, please contact the Bookstore as soon as possible - some titles are being returned to publishers and availability may be limited. SPRING TERM textbooks should begin to arrive the first two weeks of December.

Questions? Call the Bookstore at 632-2962, ext. 2962, or e-mail aqbooks@iserv.net.

ATTENTION CONTINUING EDUCATION STUDENTS!

Do you still have questions about the various AQ services available to you? Need to obtain a student ID? Want to meet other CE students? Consider attending the upcoming CE orientation.

Orientation is usually for new AQ CE students; but this time, we are opening it up to current CE students as well. Several service areas will be represented (including ITS, Health Services, Career Services, Library & Media, Student Accounts, Academic Achievement, Women's Studies Center, Campus Safety and others) so you can get help with many of your unanswered questions.

When: Monday, January 9th, 5:30-7:30p.m.
Where: Wege Ballroom

Please contact Brenda Hennink by phone at 616-632-2923 or via e-mail at hennibre@aquinas.edu for further details. An RSVP is required by Friday, December 16.

NEW LIBRARY POLICY

Due to changes in delivery agreements with local public libraries, Woodhouse Library can no longer be responsible for non-Aquinas materials returned to the library. The only returned materials the Woodhouse Library accepts are those checked out from the Woodhouse Library. Items checked out from other libraries must be returned to their library of origin.

Also, please note, Interlibrary Loan books must be returned to the Woodhouse Library.

ATTENTION ALLIES AND FRIENDS!

The December WI Event Newsletter is now available. Please visit our website at <http://www.aquinas.edu/woodrick> and click on the WI Event Newsletter link on the left to download your copy today. On the WI Newsletter page there are links to current and past newsletters in 2 formats, Microsoft Word and Adobe Acrobat. Adobe Acrobat is a free software that you can download from www.adobe.com by clicking the "Get Adobe Reader" icon on the left. Remember to register early for events that you would like to attend! Please feel free to let us know how this new method of delivering the newsletter works for you. Thank you for continuing to be allies and friends of the Woodrick Institute.
