

SUMMER WORKSHOPS AT AQUINAS COLLEGE

SPONSORED BY THE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

The Summer Workshops at Aquinas is an event you don't want to miss.

JULY 19-21, 2010

the School of Education at Aquinas will bring together teachers, administrators, parents, and education students to learn about current issues in education.

Morning, afternoon, and evening workshops will focus on 'hot topics' including:

Response to Intervention (RTI)
Asperger Syndrome
Bullying
Brain-based Learning
What's New in Children's Literature
Assistive Technology
Nonviolent Crisis Intervention
Science Projects for Parents and Kids
Co-Teaching
and much more!

Cost per workshop: $45

3 full days of workshops, including evening workshops: $220

Graduate credit is available at a reduced rate.

Contact the School of Education at 632-2440

or go to www.aquinas.edu/education/events.html for more information.