

MODEL UNITED NATIONS Fall 2006

DURHAM'S EXPECTATIONS:

We expect our students to perform in a mature, respectful manner, with class. Remember that you are representing Aquinas College.

You are also to act as a diplomat from your country. As such, you will:

- Become the representative from your country as the conference convenes;
- Maintain appropriate appearance and dress accordingly at all times;
- Always follow parliamentary procedure and decorum;
- Not stretch the limits of your country's policies such as starting a war, engaging in inappropriate filibuster, or going beyond the powers of a diplomat;
- Treat all others with due respect and courtesy;
- Be present at all scheduled meetings for your committee and country at the conference.

We do not, and will not, allow any student to continue participating in these programs that do not live up to adult standards socially. Minimum response is immediate dismissal at student's expense.

If you agree to the above, sign below and you may participate in the 2006 Model United Nations as a representative of Aquinas College.
