Early & Elementary Education in Italy (2022)

LED BY NKECHY EZEH
AQUINAS COLLEGE

Developed in Italy, the Reggio Emilia approach to preschool and primary education has inspired countless teachers around the world. Learn more about its international influences when you visit the Loris Malaguzzi International Centre, named for the philosophy's creator. You'll also connect with other passionate students and teachers during visits to local schools, and gain insight into how educational practices have changed over time when you visit the oldest university in the world.
