APA Style Citations

The information in this document is taken from the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association 6th Edition, 2009. Don’t forget: Your reference list must be double-spaced, and entries must have a hanging indent.

Note: Times New Roman is the only accepted font style in APA formatting.

Entire Books:

Print version:

Electronic version:

Electronic version with DOI:

Edited version:

Book chapters, reference book entries, essays in anthologies

Print version:

Electronic version:

Electronic version with DOI:

Journal article with DOI (digital object identifier)

Format:

Example:

Journal article without DOI

Format:

Electronic:

Print:
For information obtained from periodical databases, provide the home page URL of the journal, or of the book or report publisher.

Newspaper and magazine articles:

Format:
Author’s name. (Yr, Month Day). Article title. Name of Publication. Issue(vol)., page #.

Newspaper:

Magazine:

Electronic version:

Multi-page document created by private organization

Format:

Example:

*If no date, enter n.d. inside parenthesis

U.S. government report:

Format:
Agency name. (Date). Title of report. Publishing date: Publisher

Example:

*If no date, enter n.d. inside parenthesis

Chapter or section in an Internet document:

Format:

Example:

For examples of information sources not listed here, see the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th ed. located at the Reference Desk at the AQ Library.