Question	Answer
Contacting the SOE	All School of Education faculty and staff are working remotely. Our phone line (616.632.2800) and our department email (SchoolofEd@aquinas.edu) are being monitored regularly.
Student Teaching	SP20 student teaching placements will be handled on a case-by-case basis. Be sure to document and journal any continued or virtual activities. FA20 decisions and placements for student teaching have been delayed due to the statewide closure of all PK12 schools. Check back to this FAQ page for future updates as additional information becomes available. Contact Stacy Slomski at SMS014@aquinas.edu for more information.
Advising Appointments	Advising appointments to plan for FA20 classes will be conducted virtually or by phone. Email your faculty advisor to request an appointment time. Faculty advisor contact information is available in MyAQ for undergraduate students.. Students are encouraged to use MyAQ to run a Degree Audit and to confirm that accurate majors/minors are on record. Discuss any concerns or questions with your faculty advisor. Links to appointment request forms for undergraduate (UG) advising with Liz Jorgensen and graduate (GR) advising with Michele Mazurek can be found on our SOE website Forms page here.
Clinical Placement Hours	Education students are encouraged to connect with their course instructors and to seek opportunities to support PK12 learning online. Document and journal your activities to include in your SOE portfolio. Share pictures and posts of your activities on our SOE Facebook page here .
AQ Updates	Monitor the Aquinas College COVID-19 web page for college announcements and the Campus Operations Status page for information on department availability (e.g. bookstore, library, student accounts). As always, students are encouraged to seek counseling support for stress and mental health by calling 616.632.2905 or emailing CHWS@aquinas.edu.

Be well and stay healthy. The thoughts and prayers of the SOE are with you!
