

Study Abroad in Freiburg, Germany

ABOUT THE PROGRAM:

The Freiburg, Germany Program is located at Albert-Ludwigs-Universität in Freiburg, Germany and lasts the duration of a full academic year (from early September to late July).

ACADEMICS:

Following a one-month orientation period, students take courses specifically designed for the program, as well as regular courses at the university. Program specific courses include German grammar and composition, surveys of literary or historical periods, Germany history, and the European Union.

HOUSING:

Students live in a single room in the university dormitories. Dormitories include shared kitchen facilities on each floor. Students also have the option to dine in the university cafeterias.

ELIGIBILITY:

Participants must have achieved the 301 level in German or higher at time of participation, have at least a 2.5 cumulative GPA, have at least a 3.0 GPA in German courses, and must be of junior or senior status at time of participation. Participants must also be open to the cross-cultural experience and be in good academic and disciplinary standing.

COST:

Estimated Program Fee of $14,000 + $500 administration fee. Program fee includes academic expenses, administrative costs, mandatory health insurance, orientation, special language classes, local excursions, field trips, and German social and insurance fees.

OTHER COSTS:

Students will be responsible for arranging their own transportation. Additional costs are estimated at $15,700 for the year and include:

- Meals $3600
- Housing $5000
- Personal $4500
- Books and Supplies $700
- Local Travel $500
- Flight $1400

MORE INFORMATION:

To watch videos about Aquinas College International Programs or for more information about this program, visit our website: www.aquinas.edu/intprograms.

Timothy Ramsay, Director of International
Programs & Services
Phone: (616) 632-2076 Email: ramsatim@aquinas.edu

Aquinas College International Programs Office
Mother Victor Flannery Hall
1700 Fulton St. E.
Grand Rapids, MI 495

